WATERING THE FIELDS OF HUMANITY: Mahdah Urf-We Are Mother Earth (WAME)-Global Cooperation

Greetings & UNIversal Love, Re: Just Stop Campaign On behalf of the innocent and the under-served throughout the world, I am pleased to invite world leaders to join the Just Stop Campaign for family development. We are launching this project in harmony with the Global Cooperation Day / We Are Mother Earth collaboration under Professor Liz Greenwell's overall global vision - "Watering the Fields of Humanity". Professor Greenwell was recently recognised as an Ambassador and Global Peace Author by an international network comprising at least four Nobel Laureates. https://peacefromharmony.org/?cat=en_c&key=912 The Just Stop Campaign is designed to help stabilise the most vulnerable constituencies around the world using 3 Mandates: 1. Just Stop the Bully 2. Just Stop Settling for Less 3. Just Stop Abusing Mother Earth Together, we have created the Mahdah Urf Music Showcase to promote greater awareness through music, food for thought, and food security solutions that achieve "URF" - Universal Reformation of Families. Please go to our website at mahdahurf.com to find the initial details of our 3 Step Program for a Brand New Beginning in the culture of peacemaking: 1. Trees of Peace & Reconciliation 2. Spark 4 Humanity 3. The Music Playlist https://spark.adobe.com/page/TtB1RdaBQnAvz/ All peoples are encouraged to incorporate these principles in the performance of their duties for the greater good of humanity. We greatly admire your proven leadership in this regard and look forward to adding your support to this worthy initiative. Yours truly, Onika Best Queen of the Drum Barbados Per Adam Greenwell, Coordinator, New Zealand

Farmer Tantoh

Our Cameroonian friend Dieudonne Tantoh Nforba (Farmer Tantoh) is a world expert in spring catchment protection and agro-forestry and a great friend/supporter of Global Cooperation Day, founded by my (Adam Greenwell) mother, Professor Liz Greenwell https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Farmer_Tantoh

We introduced Farmer Tantoh to Andrew Pothecary, (CEO ForestNation, our inaugural global tree-planting partner). Andrew then kindly appointed Farmer Tantoh to Ambassador of ForestNation and introduced Farmer Tantoh to fellow ForestNation Ambassador, Julian Lennon.

As a result of that introduction, 22,000 people have access to potable, clean water in Cameroon. There are other possibilities.

Introduction to Inaugural Global Cooperation Day Statement
Liz Greenwell, (30 September, 2013).
Hello to everyone around the world.

I am delighted to have this opportunity to introduce myself and my work to the world. My thanks to all those people who have made it possible. Thank you to Andrew Pothecary, of Forest Nation for your wonderful support; to Martha Samasoni for narrating my material for Global Cooperation Day, and to my son Adam for his continuous support and promotion of myself and my work.
There could be no better day to introduce a work of this nature, purpose and scope, than on the Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi, the 4th of October.
St. Francis has been a feature at times throughout the course of my life and work, and I will cover that in my script for Watering the Fields of Humanity. But I will say that one of these occasions was when I was making my film No Chance to Paint the Canvas in 1999, to coincide with the new Millennium, I had a profound reason for wanting the sound of bells.
No other bells would do, except the sound of the bells of the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi, in Umbria, Italy.

Upon hearing my request, a friar went down to the tomb of St. Francis, spent an extended time in prayer, then

My work for humanity and the world was sparked by and has its origins in my experience of early childhood poverty.

The harsh reality of being a very small child, a little girl experiencing homelessness, hunger and the biting cold of an joy winter in Kilkenny, Ireland.

Amidst the extreme cold, icy concrete and bowling gales, I had a recurring dream of a sparkling blue/green ball
