TOGETHER FIRST

A global system that works for all

Yes, Blaise	Mongolia	Yes
Weapons of Mass Destruction	Conflict and inequality	Short
Global catastrophic risks mitigated	Risk multipliers managed	Implementation timeframe development. Preventive action is required to ensure that this does not pose an additional threat to African people suffering already from armed violence.

On the other hand, meetings in Geneva can help to mobilise diplomats.

The current proposal will help adding voices to the list of African countries requesting the ban on autonomous

Overall, however, capacity building of stakeholders is essential. The direct short-term end result is that some states weapons. Preventive action must be taken to ensure that technological developments do not pose an additional on the continent will align themselves with those already demanding a binding instrument against lethal threat to African people suffering already from armed violence, the gender impacts of which are significant.

autonomous weapons systems.

The background analysis is attached.

conditions but the sector political level presents gaps.

On the financial level, the Campaign to Stop Killer Robots is already providing support since 2018. But in view of the future stakes and the targets and actors to be involved, it will be necessary to further fundraise for the campaign.